

NYC & CO.

New York Cottages and Gardens

COTTAGESGARDENS.COM | AP

CHELSEA
CLINTON HILL
THE BRONX
TRIBECA UPPER EAST SIDE

SIMPLY CHIC

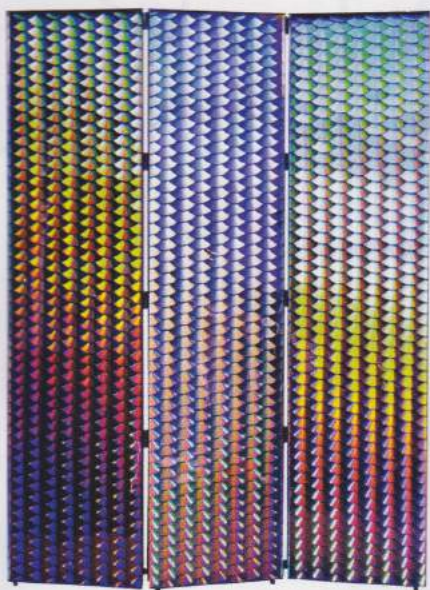

SHOP TALK

DESIGN DISCOVERIES FROM NEW YORK AND BEYOND

Making the most of your space doesn't always mean a soup-to-nuts renovation—sometimes a stylish divider is all you need. Originally designed in the late 1970s, the hand-painted Metropole screen has recently been given a fresh update by interior designer Eric Cohler. $11,720, at Baker Furniture, NYDC, 200 Lexington Ave, Ste. 300, NYC, 212-779-8810, bakerfurniture.com

SCREEN PLAY

RAINBOW GLOW

This rare steel-framed screen by artist and furniture designer André Dubreuil boasts iridescent scales that positively shimmer. $28,000, at Karl Kemp Antiques, 36 E. 10th St, NYC, 212-254-1877, karlkemp.com.

PRETTY PETALS

New York-based artist Nina Helms's Fleur screen, featuring large, whimsical hand-painted flowers on Lucite panels, will lend a touch of spring to any room. Starting at $24,000, 515-510-5119, ninahelms.com.

MOOR, MOOR, MOOR

Add some Andalusian flair to your flat with this Alhambra screen, handmade and imported from Morocco. $950, at Moroccan Prestige, 18-07 38th St, Queens, 212-741-1470, moroccanprestige.com.

TAKING FLIGHT

Featuring a woodland scene on an antiqued silver ground, this chinoiserie wallpaper screen is an elegant way to section off a parlor or great room. $1145, at Gracie, D&D, 979 Third Ave, Ste. 1411, NYC, 212-924-6816, graciestudio.com.

SECRET GARDEN

Bring the outside in with the Italian-made Aliseo screen, fitted with floral-patterned linen in an 18k gold-plated frame. Starting at $6175, at Property, 57 Walker St, NYC, 917-237-0123, propertyfurniture.com.

MOD SQUAD

Graphic color blocks, as seen on this custom screen at Décor NYC, make for an exceptionally bold accent piece. $499, 159 W. 25th St, NYC, 212-488-4977, decornyc.com.